Market Master Herbolzheimer Anxious to Get Consignment of Government Food—Will Ask Special Meeting

Declares Products Could Easily be Handled and Big Amounts Disposed of Daily—Merchants Favor It.

"Lima would certainly be able to use a large quantity of the government supplies," said John Herbolzheimer, market master, "I believe I could handle between $4,000 and $5,000 worth of the canned goods at the city market a day.

"It seems to me, tho," he said, "that I should have been notified of the possibility of getting some of the supplies to Lima. I was never told a thing about it, reading it in the newspapers for the first time.

"If the only obstacle to getting a shipment in Lima has been removed, I am in favor of bidding for a large quantity. It will help the working man, and if the price is right, it will be a great relief to the city.

"I will have the clerk call a meeting of the finance committee of the council to see what they want to do about standing good for the shipment. I can prepare a list of what we can use here, and we can make a try to get some of the goods. I believe in taking advantage of the offer. Funny thing I was never told anything about it."

"We need just this sort of thing here at the present time," he continued. "People are paying high prices, even tho meats have come down a little in the past few days. But this Government canned goods will be sold cheaper than the prevailing market prices and thousands of people will be benefited.

"We have the equipment, and stalls, at the market place to handle this work, and if the advertising is taken care of, it can be successfully put over. We are not allowed to advertise, but I think it will be sufficiently made public to attract everybody. Yes, I am sure that I can handle $5,000 worth a day."

James Morton, speaking for the Grocers' association, who would be somewhat affected by the cut in prices during the sale, said that the association would welcome the plan.

"You can count on the Grocers' association standing behind any proposition that is for the city's benefit," he said. "While the Government supplies would be sold for less than the retail prices, the local grocers will be anxious to assist in disposing of the stock, I am sure. You can say that the Grocers' association is for it."

David Rupert, city auditor, stated that since the question of financing the proposition had been taken care of by Secretary of War Baker's action, there was no reason why Lima could not take advantage of the offer.

"We have a city market, and a market master, who gets $1,800 a year. Let him handle the matter, thru the established market," said Rupert.

WILKINS ESCAPES, TAKES OWN LIFE

Aged Mineola Physician, Convicted of Wife Murder, Commits Suicide

MINEOLA, L. I.—Officials were striving Monday to learn how Walter K. Wilkins, aged Long Beach physician, convicted Friday of murdering his wife, eluded a guard, slipped from his cell and committed suicide by hanging himself in the jail bathroom Sunday night. Guards had been directed to watch Dr. Wilkins. How he escaped is a puzzle to county authorities.

The investigation started Monday also aimed to learn how the prisoner had smuggled a piece of rope into his cell.

Found guilty of first degree murder, Dr. Wilkins was to have been sentenced Tuesday morning.

The physician left three letters, protesting his innocence and referring bitterly to several of the state witnesses.

"I am going to be my own executioner," he wrote.

DIES IN ACCIDENT

St. Marys Man Electrocuted While at His Work

ST. MARYS.—Presumed accidental contact with an electrical switch caused the death of Fred Critten, 35, married and the father of three small children. The lifeless body was found in a small building containing a flume intake leading from the Miami and Erie canal to the Western Ohio Interurban powerhouse. Critten was employed to clean the flume screens daily. Evidence shows he was in act of placing one of the iron screens against the wall when it struck an electrical switch carrying a voltage of 600. Surviving are the wife, three children, mother, brother and sister.

CAMP GRANT IS BOUGHT BY U. S.

Government Buys 4,000 Acre Army Site for $800,000

CHICAGO.—The 4,000 acres of land on which Camp Grant is situated have become the property of the United States government for a sum approximating $800,000. The land was originally leased from its owners, but when the war department decided to make Camp Grant a permanent cantonment, it became necessary to buy it. The price paid per acre, ranging from $150 to $350, is the highest paid in the purchase of any of the fourteen army camps which the government is to retain.

Payments amounting to $304,532 were made Saturday to owners of the land, and payments will be continued this week. Practically all of the land desired is now in legal possession of the government. The only exceptions are a few tracts where the owners refused to sell at the figures set by the government. These tracts will be condemned.

CONVICTS LACKING

Prison Road Work Discontinued Since Saloons Closed

MARTINS FERRY.—Repair work on Belmont county highways, heretofore, performed by prisoners from the county jail, has been discontinued because there are no prisoners available. Prohibition is believed responsible. The population of the county jail now is fifteen. While the saloons were operating the average was 35. At one time last year the institution had a population of 135.

Simpson-Metheany Can Save People Money

The city administration of Lima has it within its power to do the people a great service.

These men can save the citizens of the city hundreds of dollars on food if they will act and act at once.

Lima may secure its allotment of surplus food bought for the army by the government and which is being sold thru cities to private consumers. The price is far below that of the retail market.

There are a billion meals in the government warehouses. This food is being portioned out. This city may obtain large quantities of canned meats and canned vegetables and fruits at a greatly reduced price.

The last obstacle has been removed. Secretary Baker has announced that payment need not be made until after the products are sold. Under the original plan of payment on delivery, Lima had no money to make the purchase. Now, all that is necessary is for the city to stand good for the shipment.

The food could be handled thru the local market. Market Master John Herbolzheimer says he could dispose of consignments and wants the city to take the necessary steps.

The retail merchants favor anything that will benefit the people, their secretary, James Morton, said today. He added that the grocers' association favored and would stand back of any move to get cheaper food for Lima people.

A special meeting of council should be called without delay and the necessary action taken to get this city's share of this food. The people won their fight against the big packing interests and now should have the benefit. The packers wanted the food shipped out of the country in order that high prices would not be affected.

Many councilmen today declared they were in favor of acting at once on this matter. It remains for Mayor Simpson and Service Director Metheany to take steps. They should not hesitate.

Secretary Baker will set the price for the food.

6 OHIOANS KILLED WHEN TRAINS HIT 2 AUTO PARTIES

Man and Woman Die in Crash on Western Ohio Near Wapakoneta

Four Are Victims in Collision On the B. & O. Near Dayton

WAPAKONETA.—Henry Poppe and Mrs. Fred Poppe were killed, and Fred Poppe was injured probably fatally, when a Western Ohio interurban car struck the automobile in which they were riding at a crossing two miles north of New Bremen late Sunday.

The automobile was crossing the track in front of the car when the driver of the machine "killed" the engine on the track. The automobile was carried 200 feet from the crossing. The Poppes reside near New Bremen.

FOUR DIE NEAR DAYTON

DAYTON.—Two persons were killed, two died shortly after having reached a hospital, another sustained injuries which probably will result fatally, and five others were badly cut and bruised when a northbound Baltimore and Ohio passenger train crashed into an automobile late Sunday at a crossing near Tippicanoe City, 12 miles north of Dayton.

The dead were: William Ressler, 50 years old, Lewisburg, and Wilbur Ressler, 7 years old, Lewisburg, killed; Mrs. Earl Cress, 40 years old, Arcanum, died in hospital Mrs. Mattie Ressler, 36 years old, Lewisburg, died in hospital.

The injured are: Carl Ressler, 12 years old, internally injured, probably will die; Elmer Ressler, bruised about the head; Mrs. Richard Foster, Lewisburg, internally injured and cut about the face; Robert Cress, blind, cut about the body; Carl Cress, 9 years old, leg crushed and may have to be amputated, and Earl Cress, 7 years old, Arcanum, shoulder and face cut.

BUDGET NOW LOW

Cox Refuses to Sign Appropriation Bill

COLUMBUS.—Governor Cox Monday allowed the general appropriation bill to become a law without his signature.

"I cannot in conscience sign this bill appropriating $54,000,000 which is approximately $10,000,000 more than two years ago. The worst of it is that there will not be enough money in the treasury to pay the bills, and the budget was passed with full knowledge of this."

The governor explained that the fiscal year begins July 1, and if he were to veto the bill, it would mean that state institutions would have to close. He said he was going to instruct state institutions to live within their income.

Cox recommends the creation of a budget system by constitutional amendment to remedy the situation.

SEVEN BRIDAL PAIRS ABOARD PRESIDENT SHIP

ABOARD U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON.—(Sunday.)—The George Washington, aided by perfect weather, made good time in President Wilson's first day at sea on his return voyage to America. Thru the President's intervention at the last moment, seven bridal couples are coming home on the George Washington. The grooms are private soldiers and were members of the president's guard in Paris. They were sent ahead to Brest, but when transportation was sought for their brides the embarkation officers said there was no place for them. The grooms sent a joint wire to the president, who instructed the authorities to find room for them on the ship. The grooms are Oscar Stewart, of Kansas City; David Powers, Chico, Calif.; Chester Cooper, Sharon Springs, Kas.; Walter Shelhorn, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Percy Cumby, of Newark, N. J.; Nelson Young, of Philadelphia and Albert Onel, of Seneca Falls.

CONSIDER NEW TREATY

PARIS.—With President Wilson en route home and Premier Lloyd George in London, the allied peace commissioners were expected to take up Monday completion of the Austrian peace treaty. Argument on the principle of reparations, reached last week, was believed to have paved the way for speedy assembling of the remainder of the document.

The president sailed from Brest on the transport George Washington 2:15 Sunday afternoon, escorted by the dreadnought Oklahoma and four destroyers. He was accompanied by Bernard Baruch, Vance McCormick and Thomas Lamont. Although there was little ceremony attending his leave-taking at Brest, he was given a send-off in Paris Saturday night equalling in enthusiasm his original greeting. President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau, General Pershing, members of the American peace commission, and other prominent persons were at the station.

Wilson satisfied. "Wilson left France justly satisfied with his accomplishments," said L'intransigent. "Certainly there are still injustices to be corrected and there are precautions still to be taken, but Wilson is entitled to say the treaty renders liberty to the peoples and makes international law a reality. Equally great was the signing of the Anglo-American agreement to help France in case of attack."

"While the house of commons will unquestionably ratify the treaty quickly, it is certain the principal battle will be in the American senate. On the outcome of this battle the future security of a good portion of the world depends."

Secretary Von Haniel of the German peace commission and 29 other members of that body left Versailles for Cologne on a special train at 9:20 Monday morning.

EPWORTH LEAGUE IN BIG PARADE

Young People's Day Held at Methodist Meeting in Columbus

COLUMBUS.—Young people of the Methodist church, from all sections of the state are in Columbus Monday to participate in the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor day program at the centenary exposition.

One of the features of the day's program was the Epworth League parade from the big tent to the Coliseum Monday afternoon. Led by a band, representatives from all parts of the United States joined in singing as they marched thru the grounds.

The main exercises of the day began in the Coliseum at 2 p. m., with Bishop A. W. Leonard of San Francisco, presiding.

Prohibition day at the centenary exposition Tuesday will be a national celebration.

Misleading Signs Are Found Here

Do you believe in signs? Signs of the times, sign language, distress signs and counter-signs all have their meaning, but some signs on Lima are misleading.

Now that it is all over, or at least it will be July 1, which is tomorrow, former saloonmen of Lima have failed to remove the beer signs.

Designation of the one-time oasis by means of gilded lettering on the front is still in evidence, even after the start of the second dry month for Ohio.

YANK IS KILLED IN PEACE CELEBRATION

COBIENZ.—Careless firing of revolvers and rifles during an American peace delegation at Andernach, caused the death Monday of W. Johnson, a military police of New Jersey City, N. J.

Germans were sullen over the enthusiasm of the doughboys as they displayed in their impromptu balls and processions.

City Has Chance to Get Part of Government Supplies if Officials Will Take Action on it Immediately

Mayor Simpson Pessimistic About Amount of Work and Worry—Councilmen Favor Steps to Cut Prices

With the assurance of Secretary of War Baker that cities would be granted the chance to buy surplus government supplies and pay for them after they were sold to the consumer, Lima's council members and officials are becoming interested in the possibility of getting cheaper canned goods to relieve the high cost of living.

While councilmen are very much in favor of having a shipment sent to Lima and disposing of it at the city market, Mayor Bailis Simpson was pessimistic of its success, stating that it would require much work and worry, and would be marked by red tape.

When questioned as to the part Lima would take in supplying the people of this city with the goods offered by the government, Mayor Simpson said:

SIMPSON SAYS IT WOULD MEAN WORK AND RED TAPE.

"Well, I don't know. Of course, there will be a lot of work and responsibility to a matter of that sort. Somebody will have to stay with it and handle it, and it will be a big job.

"Then too," he continued, "the big cities will take up most of the goods, so Lima may not be able to get any at all. It might be a good thing to write to Washington and find out about shipping some of the goods here, but there is so much red tape to those things that it would take a lot of time.

"However, it might be a good thing," he added, "and I expect if Washington is going to ship the goods out and collect for them after they are sold, we will be notified. I expect, tho, that a government clerk, or army officer, or someone connected with the government would be here to handle the sale. Of course, the officials at Washington will dictate the arrangements."

COUNCILMEN FAVOR GETTING FOOD FOR PEOPLE OF LIMA.

"You can put me on record," said J. W. Dempster, president of the city council, "as favoring any move to get some of the government supplies to Lima. We should avail ourselves of every opportunity to help the working man, who is having a hard time of it now, with the high cost of living at its present mark. We better get in touch with the proper authorities, and see what we can accomplish. The matter could be handled thru the city market."

E. R. Foster, of the city council, is very anxious to get some action on the matter.

"You can count me in on that plan in any way," he said. "I will even go down to the city market and help hand out the goods. I believe it a fine opportunity for the city to do something for the poor devil who cannot afford the high prices now prevailing. The service director ought to get busy, he appoints the market master. Believe me, the council will not pass the buck to the service director on this matter, but will take an active hand. I'm for it."

C. P. Morey, council from the south side, said, "Sure, give the working man a chance. If there is any way we can help the laboring class, believe me, we ought to do it. Count me in."

'SURPRISE PARTY' FOR VIOLATORS

Dry Lid Goes on Ohio Tuesday, Says Anti-Saloon League Leader

COLUMBUS.—A "surprise party" with a sad ending for liquor dealers is in store for those who sell liquor in Ohio in spite of prohibition regulations, according to Wayne B. Wheeler, Anti-Saloon League counsel, who is here to attend the Methodist centenary celebration.

Federal agents will be on the job Tuesday and the lid will be clamped down on illegal liquor selling in Ohio when the federal war prohibition measure goes into effect, Wheeler promised. He said that there is a penalty—$1,000 fine and one year's imprisonment—provided for in the war prohibition act for selling liquor.

It is up to United States district attorneys to enforce the law, Wheeler holds. Congress he believes, will pass an enforcement code that will be satisfactory and workable. In the meantime, Wheeler says, wartime prohibition can be fairly well enforced while awaiting passage of the enforcement code.

STRIKE SETTLED

SAGINAW, Mich.—Striking employees at the Saginaw shipyards, were back at work Monday as a result of Sunday's settlement. Riveters walked out a few days ago affecting 1900 employees of the yard. The strike was taken without the union's approval and the men were advised to return under the same conditions as before the strike.

'TOO ROUGH' COURT TELLS CONDUCTOR

Street Car Employee Censured by Judge and Boy is Dismissed By Him

"You should handle your passengers with more care and politeness. I feel that you have not been doing this according to the evidence in this case, so I might suggest that you follow out this advice, to keep out of trouble," Judge Botkin told H. A. MacDonel, conductor of a Market street car, in police court this morning.

MacDonel had entered a complaint against Raymond Kile, 19, 216 N. Washington street, alleging that the youth had attempted to start a fight.

Other passengers on the car, including B. A. Gramm of the Grammer-Bernstein Motor Truck company appeared in defense of the youth, alleging that the conductor had handled him roughly.

"That should not be tolerated," the judge said, "the conductor had no right handling the man roughly. Although the boy might have resented it, he still should have acted more politely."

It was alleged by the plaintiffs that Kile had refused to enter the car the platform being crowded. The court dismissed Kile.

FIGHT LIFTING OF BAN WHEN ARMY IS DEMOBILIZED

Drys in Congress Plan to Prevent Respite for the Wets

WASHINGTON.—Continuous nation-wide prohibition, beginning Tuesday, was to be announced as the aim of the "ultra" prohibitionists in congress Monday.

Resenting President Wilson's efforts to have the war-time prohibition act repealed as soon as technically possible, the drys were planning to push thru congress legislation that will prevent a wet period of a few months between the time the president declares war-time prohibition at an end and the great drouth of constitutional prohibition.

As the first step in this campaign, Representative Randall, California, prohibition party man, was planning to introduce in the house Monday an emergency peace measure to prohibit removal from bond or transportation in interstate commerce of the 70,000,000 gallons of distilled spirits now stored between the date of the president's proclamation and the date of constitutional prohibition.

The prohibitionists believe this plan will prevent a respite for the wets, because the stock of beer probably will be well exhausted by that time and few breweries will open up for a few months.

Unless some action of this kind is taken, Randall states, the country will be thrown into a whiskey-drinking orgy.

"When the president lifts the ban, it will pour out a flood of 70,000,000 gallons of whiskey now held in bond by the war-time prohibition act," said Randall. "That act does not relate to beer and wine alone, and he cannot discriminate.

"With a million men yet to demobilize, under no circumstances could his proclamation be issued before October 1."

SHOPLIFTERS ARE FINED BY COURT

Girls Caught Stealing at Deisel Company Say They Didn't Need Stuff

Warning the girls that the next time they were arraigned before him and found guilty, that they would be given a workhouse sentence, Judge Botkin this morning in police court fined Creta Barker, 18, and Ella Hope, 20, $25 dollars each, after their pleas of guilty to a charge of shoplifting.

The girls were arrested Saturday night, following a chase by clerks of the Deisel company, where it is alleged they were caught stealing goods. Mary Patterson, 16, 1311

Miss Barker lives at 548 west Elm street and Miss Hope at 326 west Elm. All three are colored.

Evidence introduced by Police Chief Roush showed that they had stolen shirtwaists, silken underwear, corset covers and other articles of wearing apparel.

They admitted the thefts and told the court that they had committed similar thefts upon at least one previous occasion. When asked why they did it, they said they did not know because they did not need the stuff. Their parents and a large number of friends sat thru the case listening to the evidence.

Centenary Celebration Columbus (OHIO)

Described by William C. Freeman, Associated with Paul Black, Inc., New York, Chicago, Boston, Detroit.

Political parties differ in matters of government—national, state and municipal.

BUT THEY ARE IN PERFECT ACCORD WHEN IT COMES TO STANDING UP AND BEING COUNTED FOR A GOOD CAUSE, such a cause for instance, as finds expression in the Centenary Celebration Columbus.

Ex-President William Howard Taft, prompted by impulses as big and as genuine as he is, graced the Centenary Celebration with his presence last Friday and delivered one of his masterful, human talks which are doing so much to make the people understand the beatitudes of life, and to live accordingly. His words are always impressive and effective because the people know that a magnificent manhood is encased in his big frame, which is guided by a big heart and a big brain.

President Wilson has given his unqualified endorsement to the Centenary Celebration Columbus, because of the magnificent work it stands for, and is carrying on throughout the world. He will attend if he returns to the country in time. The Brotherhood of Man is the President's code. It is also the code of the Centenary Celebration Columbus.

Walter D. Hines, administrator of Railroads, is giving splendid support to the Centenary Celebration. He has made it possible for anybody living in any part of the United States to visit the Exposition by paying a full fare one way, and paying only one-third fare on the return trip.

William G. McAdoo, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, will attend the Centenary Celebration Columbus, on July 4th and will talk to the multitude on the League of Nations.

Wonderfully human is Mr. McAdoo, with a vision greatly broadened as the result of personal contact with so many angles of life in recent years.

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will speak at the State Fair Grounds, Columbus, on July 5th, set apart as Minute Men Day. 20,000 Minute Men will parade. 10,000 specially designed colonial hats will be given to men taking part in the parade.

50 men are coming from Boston, wearing original Minute Men costumes, to take part in the parade. There are 65,000 men enrolled in the Minute Men, all prominent laymen organization affiliated with the Methodist Church which sponsors the Centenary Celebration Columbus.

But the Centenary Celebration Columbus is managed on such broad, human, generous lines that people of any or all faiths may attend, for after all we are all interested in doing our best to uplift the manhood and womanhood of the world—aren't we?

General Charles P. Menoher, Commander of the Rainbow Division, now in charge of Aviation, will also speak on July 5th and will bring along some bird-men to thrill the spectators with exhibitions of their skill and daring in the air.

July 6th John R. Mott who refused to be Ambassador to China to manage the Y. M. C. A. will speak.

Not a dull or unhappy moment any day, any hour from early morning until late at night is the CENTENARY CELEBRATION COLUMBUS. See it. It will inspire you. It feeds many fine thoughts into the minds of the people that attend.

A new feature has been added to the CENTENARY CELEBRATION COLUMBUS.

"Bob" Jones, that most effective evangelist from the sunny South, holds forth nightly in a large tent at the State Fair Grounds where 2500 people can be comfortably seated. Many people attended this outlet for the emotions stirred in them after witnessing the wonders of the CENTENARY CELEBRATION COLUMBUS, during the day.

"Bob" Jones stirs the hearts and consciences of his hearers.

Band Concerts: Trombone Band, 4:30 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. Rainbow Band, 2:45 p. m. and 7 p. m.

Colored Regiment Band, 5 p. m. 60 Negroes form a chorus to sing their own heart melodies.

Mothers, you may bring your young children with you and while you are seeing the celebration your babies will be taken care of by experts at the nursery without charge.

Drop everything and see this "really and truly" wonderful CENTENARY CELEBRATION COLUMBUS.

In the lecture hall in the India Building Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be given a Zenana Party (Zenana means ladies in India, the women's quarters in high class homes). This party is in honor of Mrs. Bishop Parker, the oldest missionary in India, and Mrs. Bishop Warner. Zenana ladies will be costumed in the richest oriental silks and there will be many features of great interest. Ladies only invited.

BLOCKING OF ICY STREAM PLANNED

Billion Dollar Engineering Project is Considered by Canada

ST. JOHNS. — The mammoth project of diverting the frigid Labrador current, and bring the warm waters of the gulf stream to the eastern portions of Canada and the United States, is again being agitated in Newfoundland.

It is proposed to dam the straits of Belle Isle, at the northern extremity of Newfoundland.

It is this gateway between the Atlantic and the gulf of St. Lawrence that lets in the cold Labrador current, closing St. Lawrence ports during the winter months.

Such a change, diverting the polar stream to the Atlantic and allowing the warm waters of the torrid zone to circulate freely around eastern shores, would increase the value of lands and natural resources by billions of dollars.

It would greatly improve conditions of living and public health would release for industries vast quantities of fuel now used for heating purposes, and would greatly augment the population, commerce and revenues of Canada.

The cost would be enormous, but the project has been pronounced free from engineering difficulty.

The climatic effects of the Labrador current on Canada covers a vast extent of territory. It brings winter earlier, makes the spring later and materially lowers the winter temperature.

JUST A QUIET SMOKE, BUT IT SHOCKED SOME

TOPEKA, Kan. — Clouds of smoke coming from the women's waiting room at the Rock Island depot here, caused the patrons of the room to make an investigation. Over in the corner, smoking a clay pipe peacefully, was an aged woman, all unconscious of the excitement she was causing. When the matron told her it was not the place to smoke, the aged woman calmly went outside the depot and completed her smoke. She said she came from the mountains of Kentucky and was on her way to Nebraska.

OTTAWA

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Edgcomb of Missouri Valley, Ia., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey. Mr. Edgcomb is a brother of Mrs. Bailey. A son of the Edgcombs, with the A. E. F., was accidentally drowned, at Bordeaux, France, last January.

Miss Helen Van Cleve gave a shower for Miss Mary L. Light Wednesday afternoon. The hostess furnished Turkish towels, which the guests hemmed into towels, and crocheted edges on wash cloths. A program and refreshments made a pleasant occasion.

The marriage of Elizabeth Frey, daughter of E. L. Frey and Carl, son of Jos. Kersting, was solemnized at St. Peter and Paul's church Thursday morning. The groom is associated with the Kersting Meter Sales company. They will reside in Ottawa.

Miss Florence Jones will go to Cleveland to work with the Associated Charities.

Misses Mary Reeker and Eleanor McGreevy gave a shower in honor of Miss Bertha Reef, a June bride, at the home of the former, Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. P. Godfrey entertained Mesdames C. C. Cass, Alex. Ogilvie and Frank Light at dinner Saturday evening.

Miss Mildred Cass is visiting with her father, Hon. C. C. Cass, at Nappanee, Ind.

The Profit and Pleasure club enjoyed a picnic at Waterworks park Tuesday evening, when the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. C. I. Moore; vice president, Mrs. Jas. McDowell; secretary, Mrs. Fred Sawtelle; treasurer, Mrs. William Bennett.

DENIED KISS, ACCUSED MAIDEN OF STEALING

KANSAS CITY. — "Gimme a kiss," said J. F. Loftus to Miss Louise Wilson, a stenographer, as she stood in the doorway of the Anchor Hotel. "I'm not in the habit of kissing strange men," said Miss Wilson, as she turned inside the hotel. Thereupon Loftus went to the police station several blocks away and said: "I was robbed of $32 in bills in the Anchor Hotel lobby. The girl who robbed me was talking to me. I'll point her out to you." He declared he was broke.

At the police station Miss Wilson told the story of the request for a kiss and denied that she took his money. "Impossible!" replied the officer. Loftus said he had lost, in an inside pocket. "You put that money there!" shouted Loftus, pointing to Officer

Jake Rabinowitz. "What! A policeman give you money? Impossible!" replied the officer. Loftus was held.

When a Girl Marries

By ANN LISLE

Copyright 1919, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

On the very day after he offered me that first, flying bird's eye view of our apartment-to-be, Jim took the next determined step in his march forward and upward. Early in the afternoon he called me on the 'phone and announced:

"Anne I've just had Tom on the wire and told him that ye're quitting him as a landlord and taking him on as an interior decorator. He was a brick about it."

"I'm glad," I replied with a panicky feeling, "that Jim expected something of me, and that I must try to approach the mark, even if I couldn't quite toe it. Tom has been very decent about—the apartment all along."

"He sure has!" agreed Jim, heartily, and I know I had pleased him.

Lazy Life During Hot Months Causes Lazy Liver

AT no other time is the girl so constant a companion of her mother as when she is emerging into womanhood. There are so many questions to ask; so much she needs to know.

And school is over. Hers is now a lazy, inactive, carefree life. No wonder she is not always as lively and as well as she should be at her age. Let the mother inquire if her bowels are functioning properly, for there lies the basis of good and poor health.

It will usually be found that a laxative is needed, and none will give safer and quicker relief than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Taken tonight, it acts freely and pleasantly in the morning. The head is again clear, the body light. There is renewed interest in life.

A dose of Syrup Pepsin now and then is almost a necessity for everyone in hot weather. A bottle can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter being the family size, or a free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

BELL-ANS
FOR INDIGESTION

"Now, little lady, you hustle out and find a woman to help you pack and clean up the new place for you."

"Oh, Jim, I can do it myself! I don't need an accommodator. Why, they get three or four dollars a day now!"

"Do as I tell you!" rasped Jim's voice. "Can't I make you understand that I can afford the things I suggest? What I can't afford is to argue about every cent I spend. My time's valuable. Good-bye."

Then he rang off abruptly. Meekly and unhappily I made ready to go out and hire the accommodator I didn't want or need. It was after three by the time I started on my way, and the employment exchanges were as bare of what I desired as a winter tree of green leaves. One place, however, promised to send a reliable woman around in the morning, and with that I had to content myself.

Then, because I really had nothing in the world to do, I began roaming around the shops. Staring at the pretty finery, on display a whole season ahead of the calendar, made me forget the touchiness I was beginning to feel again. . . . With Betty away, Phoebe estanged, and the old soreness against Virginia breaking out again because it was she who had separated Neal and Phoebe in the first place, I felt indeed friendless.

I thought of Evvy and Carlotta, but I was not willing to seek them merely for the sake of companionship. I could only turn to either of them if actually driven to it. And as I wandered aimlessly up an aisle where flesh-colored Georgeanne blouses were displayed, and down another where more bags crowded the counter, I wondered if I would ever be "driven" to Evvy or Carlotta again.

Suddenly a show case where beautiful laces were exhibited caught my eye. I stopped, charmed by the exquisite fairy-like webs, and at once an alert saleswoman began exploiting her wares.

"Can I help you, madam?" I shook my head.

"Let me show you some of our fillets. French and Swiss, very beautiful and great bargains."

The clerk was old and gray, evidently a "gentlewoman." At first she interested me more than her wares. I began trying to figure out what had brought her here to work side by side with saucy young creatures less than half her age.

"The war," I said to myself. Then I grew interested in a lovely rose pattern fillet, which would make handsome collars and cuffs for my blue serge dress — would refurbish it, in fact. I did a quick mental calculation. I could easily get collars and cuffs out of a yard and a third.

"I think I'll have the rose pattern," I said. "How much is it?"

"Six dollars and a half a yard, Madam," said the courteous old saleswoman.

I felt the red chagrin flash up to my face. I hadn't more than four dollars in my purse. Fumbling for words to hide my discomfort, both because I hadn't the money and hadn't known more about the value of real lace, I managed to get away from the counter with the usual formula:

"I'll think about it — look a little further — be back later if I decide to take it."

But now all my fun in "shopping" was spoiled, and I wandered out of the store again and started homeward. How absurd it all was! Here I was, on the verge of moving into a magnificent apartment on Rivermeire Road, and I hadn't enough money to buy collars and cuffs for nine dollars. And the poor old clerk had tried so hard to please me — to make a sale.

"Barbara Anne Lee Harrison," I told myself firmly and sternly, "you're going to discuss the matter of an allowance with your husband — and this very evening, too!"

SWEATER COAT IS STILL GOOD STLYE

By ELOISE.

Vacation time is upon us and almost every girl is planning her vacation wardrobe. Of course those girls who are going "back to the farm" this summer, having acquired the habit from their one summer spent in the fields, will have little trouble deciding what to take on their trip this year. They found out last year that bloomers and middie blouses were the only garments needed and, of course, a large sun hat and heavy shoes.

Those girls, however, who try the sea shore and the mountains and the summer hotels will plan a very different wardrobe. She will want suits and frocks for every occasion from the early morning cross country hike to the formal hotel ball. Her main energy will be given over to the choosing of her sport clothes, for they still occupy a large part of the fashion stage. Sweater coats, which, it was predicted, would be pushed aside by the swaggar capes, are still popular and much more in evidence than any other wrap for wear during the day at the various summering places.

This sport outfit will be a most practical and attractive one for any girl to pack in her vacation trunk. The knitted skirt is a golden brown shade with a pin stripe of turquoise blue. The sweater coat is of golden brown silk with an inner collar of the turquoise. The hat is a rough straw in a brown shade which blends perfectly with the rest of the costume. Attired in this the summer girl is ready for anything which her hostess may propose as the order of the day.

Miss Rowena Thompson, of south Pierce street, is spending the week at Clear Lake, Ind.

Reception to Mrs. J. N. Blackstone, Mrs. B. A. Grammi, Mrs. Otis Lippincott, and Mrs. Louise Long, at the Grammi home, 3 until 6 o'clock.

Miss Francis Vogel, delegation leader, Miss Ethel Minsky, Miss Minerva Pepple and Miss Marie Rothrock, delegates from this city represented Denmark at the pageant given in honor of World Fellowship at the Mercantile, Commercial, and Industrial conference at Oxford, O., held last week under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Advocating an eight hour working day for those engaged in the domestic service as well as resignation of this field as a profession to be conducted on a business basis, members of the Home Makers Commission, Toledo, under the direction of Miss Anna Leithart, presented many well prepared discussions in the subject at the Wednesday session.

Miss Anna P. Dingman, secretary of the Immigration and Foreign Community Service of Ohio and West Virginia Field of the association, made a splendid address at the Thursday morning session, urging education along civic and national lines, to prepare foreign born women for suffrage. She stated that the recent amendment to the constitution made this necessary.

Two hundred and seventy eight girls took part in the pageant, representing the activities in twenty nations, in which the local delegates took part. A procession of the girls in costumes on the campus preceded a number of features in gymnasium, which included native songs, and folk dances under the supervision of Miss Alice Caskey, of Youngstown.

On Wednesday evening Miss Margaret Daniels, of the National Board of the Association, New York, urged the organization of women for industrial lines, not only for the betterment of the conditions in America, but in the countries of Europe and the Orient. Miss Daniels touched on the conditions of labor in Russia, China, Japan and India. Miss Daniels stated that the importance of women in industry is shown by the fact that in Japan two thirds of the work is done by women and girls.

Norbert Fisher, of Glandorf, O., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner, of south Elizabeth street.

Mrs. E. R. Leach, and son, Robert, have returned to their home, 939 west Wayne street, after a fortnight's visit with relatives and friends in Columbus, Circleville, Springfield, and Chillicothe.

The many friends of Miss Ellen Catherine Oen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Oen, formerly of this city but now of Ros, New Mexico, will be pleased to learn of her engagement to Lieutenant James Clinton Bowen, of Colorado. The marriage will be an event of the early autumn.

Miss Elsie Schroeder, of Delphos, spent Saturday in this city.

The Ladies Aid society of the St. Paul Lutheran church will entertain with an ice cream social on the lawn of Mrs. Hentzer, of 1160 west High street, on Thursday evening, July 3rd.

Miss Dorothy and Henry Stolzenbach, who have been the guests of their aunt, Miss Mary Stolzenbach, of south Pierce street, returned to their homes in Wilkinsburg, Pa., and Canton.

Mrs. Dora Metzger Patterson, of Cleveland, is the guest of her sister, Miss H. Francis Metzger of west North street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Owen, Mrs. W. F. Wells, daughter, Miss Ruth Wells and Miss Doris Young, motored to Russell's Point Sunday, where they spent the day.

Miss Josephine Sherwood of south Cole street, will leave Tuesday for Chicago, where she will spend several weeks with her former roommate at the Bradford Academy for Girls, Miss Virginia Ridgway, and from there will go to Rockford, Ill., to be the guest of Miss Eugenia Burr, another classmate.

N. Winthrop Robinson, of Boston, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Grover, of Lakewood avenue, returned to his home Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Long, of west Spring street, left Monday for Knox, Pa., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Long's mother, Mrs. T. M. Berlin.

IN SUSIE SMART'S DAILY MAIL

The letter published last week in this column concerning the paint and powder question brought forth much discussion along that line. Many readers have expressed their opinions and would like to hear those of others who are interested in this subject.

Miss Susie Smart: In your column there has been some discussion of the paint and powder question. May I have a few words on the subject?

Altho only a girl of 18, I have seen in my work the bitter results of paint and powder, not paint and powder alone, but it is the men, (must I call them men), who are so contemptible as to flirt with the silly young girl of that type, and flatter them, make promises they never keep. May I ask why men criticize the vulgar habits of young girls when they do all they can to encourage those same habits? I call that kind of work low-down caddishness. I believe that all men, however low they may be, have hidden somewhere in their hearts a sense of honor, but it is very seldom they show it. Why don't they show it in the face of these young girls, they are to be pitied not criticized. Let us all cooperate and lend a helping hand, taking as ours a well known slogan, "They may be down, but they're never out."

DISTRICT GETS MANY RECRUITS FOR NAVY

Lima is doing her bit in the matter of recruiting for the larger navy authorized by the government. Statistics from the headquarters of the western department show the Cincinnati district second in the number of enlistments secured for the naval service.

Chicago leads with slightly over one thousand. This district of which the Lima office is a branch, secured 899 successful applicants. For the number of men examined the Cincinnati office has a greater proportion of men accepted.

Who knows but that you may be the means of leading some girl from a life of destruction.

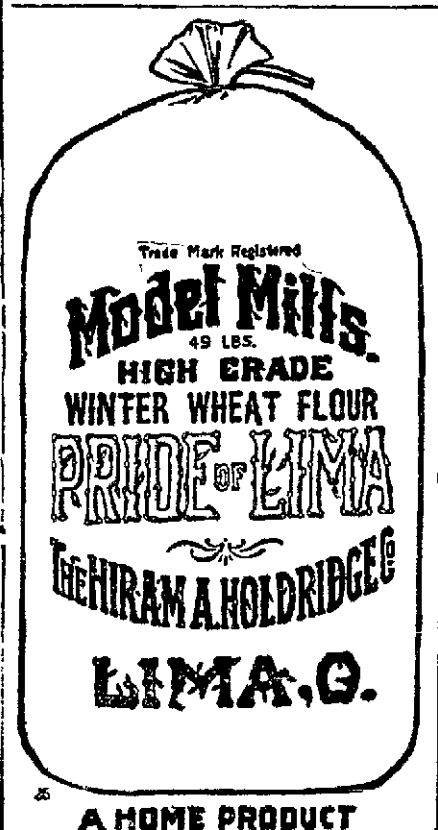

I am, A Friend
Dear Miss Smart: I read the article in your column concerning girls painting and powdering to extremes, and I have been hoping and praying that something might turn up to cure them of that silly and brazen habit. And if any girl who has any self-respect at all and can see farther than her nose, she could see she was being the butt of ridicule. And so many do not stop at that, they wear such thin and transparent materials that it is impossible to keep down the odors of the body. Then they saturate themselves with cheap, horrible-smelling talcum powder. To go in stores of different kinds among so many girls and women it is simply disgusting and is enough to make any cleanly person give them a wide berth. As far as I am concerned it makes me sick and I always hurry out.

And it is scandalous to say, but nevertheless the truth, old women set the example, (that is many of them do), I am as disgusted and as ashamed of them as I am with the saloons, and girls who flitter around and gaze up into the men's faces. I should think that they would realize that they were going against their own interests and happiness, if they are in any way sensitive. I wish there were more laws against things that shouldn't be, I wonder why there isn't?

It is bad enough for the younger girls to wear their dresses so shamelessly short, but just think of the many old ones who do. Anyone knows that they don't look anything else but just horrible.

A Reader of The News.

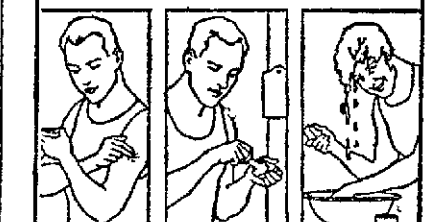

Dear Susie Smart: I read in the Daily News the two letters about girls using too much powder and paint on their faces, and I think it is time for someone to say something about girls and women pulling their hair all over their faces, necks and ears and foreheads. What would these people say or do if God would send children into this life with hair on their faces and forehead. I am sure they would say He was an unjust God. I am sure these people who enjoy covering up their ears and beautiful foreheads, with the hair that God gave them to wear on their heads, should be counted out of good people's lives I am one who is satisfied with the way God made me and one who enjoys looking the way God intended me to look. I will be glad to hear some other people's opinions.

Anxious One, Rose.

REPORT IS FILED BY ARGANBRIGHT

School Data Given Shows Big Attendance in Rural Districts

The annual report of the county superintendent of schools has been forwarded to the office of the state superintendent of public instruction at Columbus. The report has been compiled by C. A. Arganbright, Allen county superintendent.

Figures available show 169 teachers were employed, supervising the instruction of 4474 pupils. An average attendance of 1857 boys and 1707 girls is noted. These figures apply to rural schools outside of the Delphos.

School valuation amounts to $568,875, covering buildings, libraries and equipment. Twenty-two village and rural schools are in operation. The recent examination of rural teachers for the coming year—held at Memorial hall Friday—was successfully passed by all but two of the applicants. Certificates were withheld from these unsuccessful.

MILLER GETS SYMPATHY; MILLER THE REAL HERO

A sympathetic crowd of friends were standing about Vaughn Miller, city engineer, Monday morning, as he explained in harrowing details, the experiences he had Saturday evening when a molar was extracted.

"Horrible," "Awful," "Did you faint?" and other expressions were offered.

John A. McCarty, roddman for the engineering department, sat across the room, silent.

"What makes your face look so funny?" he was asked.

"Had 14 teeth pulled Saturday," he answered, smiling.

FINED IN WAPAK, ASKS CLEMENCY HERE, BUT GOES TO JAIL FOR TRAIN RIDING

"They arrested me in Wapak and fined me $11.90 including the costs, judge, and I don't think you ought to fine me again"—was the argument Alfred Hendricks, 25, colored, charged with train riding, placed before Judge Sotkin in police court this morning.

"And furthermore, I wasn't riding no box car, I ride passengers only," he declared when the affidavit was read to him. The error was corrected immediately.

The judge could find no reason for granting the prisoner clemency, so sentenced him to serve five days in the city jail.

Hendricks refused to enter a plea of guilty until the charge was changed from "riding a box car" to "riding a passenger train."

Great Sale of Rugs Starts Tuesday

Rugs of every size and every weave will be entered in this sale which starts tomorrow at Bluem's.

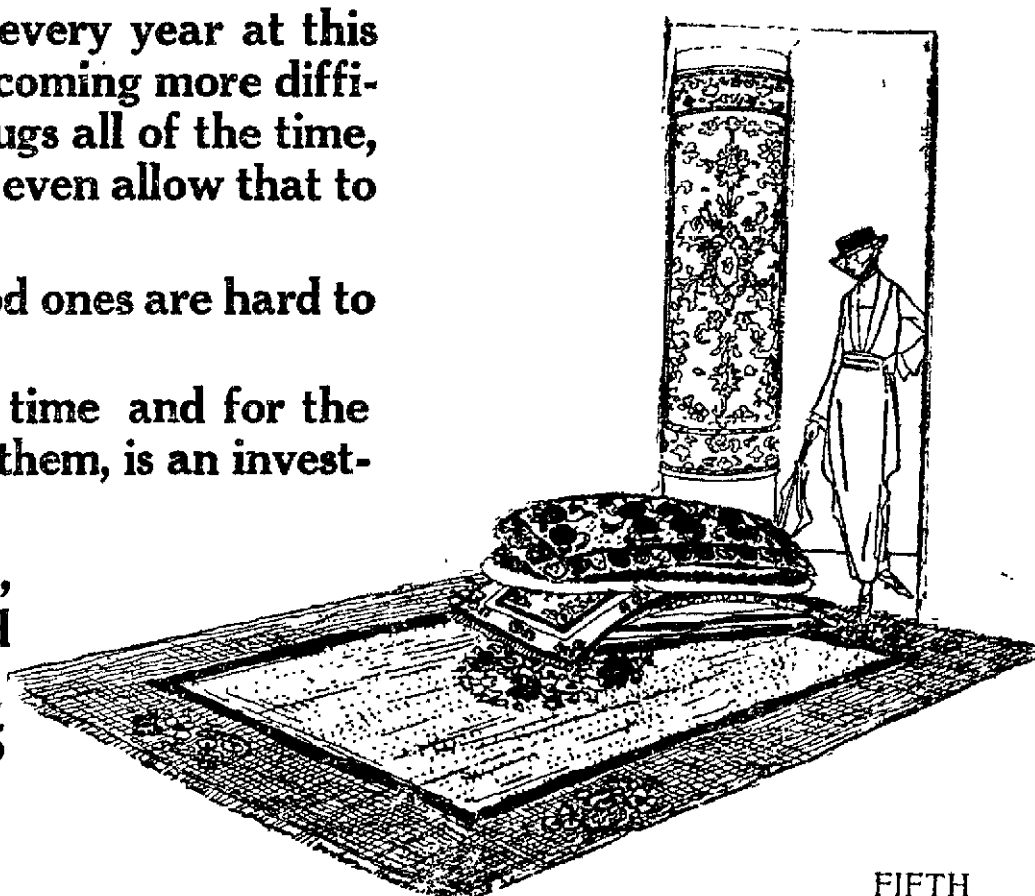

A similar sale is held every year at this time and although it is becoming more difficult to secure the better rugs all of the time, we felt that we would not even allow that to interfere with this event.

Rugs are scarce! Good ones are hard to get!

A rug bought at this time and for the prices which we have on them, is an investment worth a great deal.

Included are Axminsters, Body Brussels, Wiltons and Tapestry Brussels, 4:6x7:6, 6x9, 8:3x10:6, 9x9, 9x12, 9x15 and 11:3x2.

All at special prices!

Curtain Materials Reduced

Hundreds and hundreds of yards of fine curtain materials and draperies will take the eyes of all women visiting on the Fifth Floor tomorrow.

There are nets, scrims, marisettes and cretonnes included in the showing—and every bolt bears a tag that heralds a new price.

Cedar Chests Lower in Price

Artistically carved and perfectly plain cedar chests constructed from the genuine Tennessee Cedar may now be had for prices far under those quoted in ordinary times. Some are bound with copper. Come in all sizes.

1/2 Price for Odd Lots of Curtains

Survey the home! See if there isn't a number of windows in which the curtains have become frayed, dingy or worn.

It will be a mighty profitable thing to attend this July sale of curtains and fill in all of those bad places with fresh new affairs of such great beauty.

Even if there is no place in which to hang new curtains, purchase them now for just one-half of their former selling price—and have them ready for that moment when needed.

In the particular lot which go for 1/2 their value are included lovely affairs of net, scrim, marisette and all-over lace effects. Come in white, ivory and ecru. 2 1/2 yards long. Were formerly from $2.50 to $15.00 per pair.

All other curtains in the house are specially reduced!

JACK DEMPSEY LIKELY TO REIGN FAVORITE WHEN HE ENTERS RING

CHALLENGER'S BACKERS FLOOD WILLARD MEN WITH EVEN MONEY BIDS—A CONDITION UNPARALLELED IN RING ANNALS

TOLEDO, O., June 28.—It looks now as if Jack Dempsey, the challenger, would enter the ring at Toledo on July Fourth the favorite over Jess Willard in the betting.

Never was there such a situation in ring annals. In no previous world championship ring battle did the challenger answer the going a favorite over the champion.

The champion has mostly been a topheavy favorite. And Willard was such a favorite two weeks ago. Bets were made as high as 2 to 1 with Jess on the heavy end.

Dempsey men were at that time waiting for even better odds. But all that has changed. It's the Willard men who are hanging back now.

There's a grand rush of Dempsey coin right in Toledo where the big battle will be staged. Almost any amount can be had at even money but it is going begging.

Toledo folks are where they can go out and look at the two men. They can go first to the Casino Club and see Jess Willard hippodrome with his sparring partners, then they can hike a mile down the road and see the earnest, rip-tearing and slashing settos between Dempsey and his aids.

And having seen the two exhibitions, it's small wonder that they return to town with the sneaking suspicions that the challenger is going to put it over on the champion.

They see this same thing day after day and the comparison is never in Willard's favor. So it's most natural that the rush of Dempsey bettors should follow.

Most of the scribes and fight experts in Toledo are beginning to favor Dempsey's chances. Lots of these believed, when they hit Toledo, that Willard would win, but they have been converted.

NO TIME FOR JACK DEMPSEY TO SMILE

Now contrast Willard's mental attitude and behavior with that of Jack Dempsey in his workout rounds.

There's a bored grin or a laugh on Willard's face most all the time he's boxing with his sparring partners. And he boxed nine rounds Friday with Jack Hemple, Steamboat Bill, Joe Chip and Walter Monaghan.

On the other hand Jack Dempsey only boxed three rounds Friday, two with Jamaica Kid and one with Jack Malone. But there was a fighting expression on his face the whole time. He never let up for a moment in any one of the rounds.

How he feels about it can best be shown by an incident that occurred between rounds. A fair fan begged him to come to the ropes so she could snap him with her camera. Jack complied but there was still the same tense fighting look on his face and the fair one pleaded:

"Smile, Mr. Dempsey, please, when I take your picture."

"Can't do it now," replied Dempsey. "I'm too busy."

THOSE JUDGES TO SIT ON SAME SIDE OF RING

The two judges at the big fight will sit side by side during the battle. They'll be right together at some vantage point just in the center of one side of the ring.

In other bouts where the referee and two-judge plan has been used, the two judges would sit on opposite sides of the ring.

Then they'd vote without knowing each other's sentiments and they didn't find out whether they disagreed or not until they found out from the referee who collected a slip with the verdict of each judge upon it.

"But Major Biddle and I both feel that the two-judge plan will operate better if the judges are constantly in touch with each other," says Rickard. "It gives them a chance to deliberate with each other on a verdict, very much after the manner or jurors in a disputed law case."

NOW IT'S A REAL TOLEDO PARTY

Toledo figures that the big fight is all her party.

That's the reason Ollie Record has been chosen to referee the big fight. The Toledo officials didn't make that a condition in granting the permit for the big fight in their balliwick. But they might as well have done so.

Nobody ever heard of Ollie Record outside of Toledo, but the Toledo commission couldn't see anybody else butting in on the little party so long.

REFEREE'S POWER MAY BE FURTHER SHOWN

There's a large probability that the power remaining in the referee's hands after the judges have had their say, may be further curtailed.

A conference of referees, judges, fighters and their managers is scheduled for July 4 or the day before to decide just what the duties and authority of the referee will be.

One of the important matters to be settled is whether the referee will be allowed at any time to lay hands on either of the principals or both. Some referees assume this power. But other authorities claim the referee should not lay a hand on either fighter and knock a fighter's hand away to break a clinch.

It's very probable that Record's authority will be limited in this way. If fighters fail to obey orders to break, they can be disqualified and in this case a disqualification would mean loss of the title.

McAULIFFE PICKS DEMPSEY TO WIN

I made the trip to the two fight camps with Jack McAuliffe, who retired from the ring 22 years ago, the undefeated lightweight champion of the world. It was the first time McAuliffe has seen the two fellows in action, and he unhesitatingly picked Dempsey to win after he had looked them over.

"Jess Willard, in my opinion, cannot defeat Jack Dempsey," he said. "Dempsey is a battler by instinct. He will slash at Willard until the big fellow falls."

"Willard is a big, cowl-like creature, easy-going, training in a care-free fashion. He looks at the spectators with a good-humored smile. He is not a fighter. He is a professional man getting ready for work."

"Dempsey is a tiger. He tears and rips. He can't hold a punch. He cracks his sparring partner with vim and vigor and paralyzes him."

"I can imagine Dempsey starting from his corner with those legs of his sliding in like Bob Fitzsimmons. I can see him tie the big man in a knot with a fight, then smash his right into his big mid-section, and then hammer him down with a left to the jaw."

"Willard worries, I believe. Just from taking a look at him, to me that he has begun wondering where Dempsey is going to hit him. They tell me he weighs a little under 245 pounds. He will lose some more by worry. I believe he's a whipped man now, and knows it."

This picture and chart show the exact difference in size between Champion Jess Willard and the man against whom he will defend his heavyweight championship crown on July 4, in Toledo.

DEMPSEY FAVORITE

A glance at this comparison would almost convince one that Willard is the best bet, but in spite of his size the betting has taken a sudden turn in favor of Dempsey, the smaller man and challenger.

Lima Triumphs Over Feds 8 To 3

Lima triumphed over the strong Cincinnati Fed aggregation Sunday at the Murphy street diamond by a score of 8 to 3.

Despite the fact that the visitors registered seven hits, equal to the number gained by the local team, they were unable to advance their score.

Coming on the field an hour and a half late, the Cincinnati outfit jumped into the contest, getting a hit the first inning and blanking the locals. Their late arrival did not seem to affect their playing ability. But their show of class did not last long.

The Lima Independents connected with Few's deliveries in the second, sufficiently to warrant the removal of the visiting hurler. However, he was kept in the game. Four hits were collected by the locals. A run for every hit was registered.

Following their lengthy trip by auto from the Ohio river city, it could be plainly seen that the Feds were not in the best of condition for the game.

Egan was the first local to connect with the ball for a safe hit. Flannery, Reynolds, Malloy and Harrison followed him in the slug fest, with Malloy and Harrison grabbing off a two-bagger each. The visitors, however, came back in the next frame with three hits and two runs. Few, pitching for the visitors, banded out two batters.

Knell, playing left field for the Cincinnati aggregation, won the fans with one of the most sensational plays ever seen on the field. The fielder chased a long fly hit by Costello, fell down while running, but grabbed the ball while on his knees and held it in his bare hand for a rare catch.

Costello, determined to get a clean hit out of the game, following Knell's lucky snatching his first chance, got the longest hit of the contest when he wallowed a three-bagger down the right garden. His hit was deep into the field, and rolled to the fence.

Dues, the new catcher secured by the locals, to fill the place of Roush, should himself be capable of handling the backstop position. Hardly any of Pierce's throws got past him, while his whip to second base proved to be a perfect throw. He will probably be seen here again.

Few, the Cincinnati hurler, after being hit so frequently, kept his eye on the batting style of the Lima aggregation, and before the contest was over, he had struck out ten men. Pierce fanned seven of the visitors.

One double play was worked to perfection by the locals when a fly to Egan gave Knell of the Feds an opportunity for a steal. Egan's throw proved too sure for him.

PRINCIPALS TO BEGIN DRYING OUT

BY H. C. HAMILTON

TOLEDO — On the eve of the greatest drying out stunt in the world's history—the nation's effort—Jack Dempsey announced Monday that he will spend only a few hours in the drying room before entering the ring for his attempt to wrest the world's heavyweight championship from Jess Willard. Four or five hours, he contended, will take out of his system enough moisture to make him fit for the clash with the towering champion.

Willard told me Saturday that his drying out will be practically nothing, for he figures that he will drink very little, and that his conduct since starting to train, has been such that drying out will not be necessary.

ENDED HEAVY WORK

Both men have ended their heavy work in preparation for the mill. Dempsey will box a few rounds Monday and Willard probably will box Monday and Tuesday. Dempsey will do no boxing Tuesday, but his present intention is to let the crowd watch his maneuvers right up to Friday. It is quite probable he will be seen at shadow boxing, bag punching and such stunts even on Thursday.

Willard has grown very tired of the grind.

"I have worked steadily ever since Tex Rickard and I signed the articles of agreement for the battle," he said. "It's getting mighty old to me. I don't want to work any more. I am fit and I know it. This thing of boxing every day is a wrong after a fellow reaches the proper point."

Willard is exhibiting some good signs. He is peevish, an unnatural thing for him. When an athlete grows into a humor where he complains about little things, it is time to call off his training, for he has reached a pitch for supreme endeavor.

JESS GROUCHY

Monday Jess kicked on the fact that his photograph has been printed on the right hand side of the cover page of the official program of the bout. Dempsey's is on the left hand side. In his workout Sunday, he kicked when a time-keeper for his workout failed to call time loud enough for him to hear it.

This bodes no good for Dempsey. A peevish athlete is a good athlete. Jess has been kidding no one in his statement that he is in good shape.

Jack Kearns had some comment to make Monday on the approaching fracas.

Kearns has departed from the belief that Dempsey is going to win in a very few rounds and with very little trouble.

"Willard is a very hard hitter," said Dempsey's manager.

"When he lands it is like a rock striking you. He is liable to knock any man off his feet, but his punches haven't got the snap. If he wins over Dempsey, it will be because those solid punches will smother Dempsey."

LIKE BULLETS

"Now, Dempsey is exactly the opposite. When he cracks over a punch it carries that snappy sting. His punches are like bullets. When they hit a man he doesn't know what has struck him. There is a great difference.

"I haven't the slightest idea now that Dempsey is going to win without trouble. I believe he is going to be hit many times by Willard, but I am as certain as I am that the sun will rise Tuesday that Dempsey will reach Willard's jaw and when he does, it is certain, for he will knock out any man in the world, if he hits him."

Newspaper men here are trying to organize an association similar to the Baseball Writers Association. The main purpose is to avoid payment of war tax by men who must attend bouts. Cards would be issued to admit bearers to bouts.

Dempsey worked six rounds Sunday, a bit more than he went the previous day. Jamaica Kid was coaxed back to camp on promise that Dempsey would try to hold his punches, so there were two rounds with Bill Tate two with Jamaica and two with Jack Malone.

GETS SCRATCH

Willard came near disaster in his workout. Walter Monaghan's head struck Jess' eye and skinned a very short cut. The blood flowed and for a time it looked like the cut might be bad. A touch of colloid, however, immediately stopped the blood, and Jess himself said afterward that the cut was a mere scratch.

DRY LAW TO BE DEFIED BY MANY LIQUOR DEALERS

Big City Saloonists Will Remain
Open to Test Prohibition
Law

ACT IN EFFECT AT MIDNIGHT

Thousands of Places Close After
Today—Breweries and Stills
Abandoned

NEW YORK — John Barleycorn will die hard in New York.

With a corps of saloon keepers, hotel proprietors and restaurateurs acting the role of attending physicians, an effort will be made to keep O. John alive after Monday night, if official date of his execution. Practically the 6,000 members of the United Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, it was reported, planned to keep their saloons wide open Tuesday and thereafter until closed by legal action. The liquor dealers, hotel men and restaurant owners, were to hold independent meetings Monday afternoon, at which legal counsel would be sought and final preparations made for combating war-time prohibition.

The consumers, whether O. John died Monday night or not, were prepared to give him a wake that would go down in history.

Many saloonists in several other of the larger cities say they will remain open to make a test case of the war-time prohibition act.

TO ARREST VIOLATORS

WASHINGTON — Saloon keepers and others who violate the war-time prohibition act will be arrested and prosecuted, W. L. Frierson, assistant attorney general, stated Monday.

This is the answer of the department of justice to reports that liquor dealers in many large cities would ignore the law.

The war-time prohibition law provides a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or imprisonment not to exceed a year or both.

125,000 SALOONS CLOSE

War Time prohibition today means: The closing of 125,000 saloons, principally in big cities.

The closing of 1,247 breweries (1917 figures).

Practical abandonment of 645 distilleries, already closed as a war measure.

Loss to the government of about $250,000,000 annually in internal revenue, and the loss of several hundred millions to municipalities for licenses.

Reversion of $2,000,000,000—the "dry" liquor bill—to other purposes, who greatly increased sales of soft drinks and ice cream expected.

Hundreds of thousands of men employed in the liquor business, must find other work.

One million habitual drunkards—Anti Saloon League figures—must find some other pastime.

The productive wealth and efficiency of the country will be increased fifteen per cent, "dry" leaders claim, basing this on reports from prohibition states.

Fifty thousand druggists will be put under strict license not to sell liquor except for medicinal or scientific purposes.

ENFORCEMENT PROBLEM

Enforcement of prohibition, even dry leaders admit will be a big problem for some time. Even with Congress designating a definite agency for the work and clearly defining how much alcohol makes liquor intoxicating, the task seems stupendous.

The work of government agents means, if bone dry prohibition is to be strictly enforced, the elimination of a per capita consumption of 19.4 gallons a year from the American people. Latest figures show the consumption of 19.4 gallons a year from the American people. Latest figures show the consumption of malt liquors in the United States as 2,053,457,000 gallons; wines 52,418,000 gallons and alcohol, 146,287,000 gallons. These figures probably have been reduced during the last year because of the rapid advance of prohibition.

Achievement of national prohibition has been one of the most spectacular, as well as one of the longest reform movements, in American history. Prohibition gained little ground until the present movement started about fifteen years ago. Then, there were only three dry states: Maine, Kansas, and North Dakota; although many counties in the South had voted local option.

FIRST DRY STATE
Maine was the first state to adopt prohibition, restriction being placed on sale of liquor there in 1846. Real prohibition was enacted in 1851, but was repealed in 1856. Then again it was re-enacted by a 5 to 1 vote.

Kansas was the second state to fall into the dry column, the vote being taken in 1861. The law, however, was laxly enforced until fifteen years ago.

This lax enforcement started Carrie Nation, noted prohibition advocate, on her famous saloon smashing career. Armed with an axe, she demolished the fixtures of several Kansas saloons running wide open in violation of the state law. Her success at breaking up Kansas saloons, with an extensive propaganda campaign, caused her to continue her bar smashing in other states.

North Dakota followed Kansas, adopting prohibition in 1889, and was the first state to call a special session of the legislature for the ratification of the Federal amendment.

The scattering prohibition efforts had little effect on the consumption of liquor. Served as a part of the government ration to soldiers during the Civil War, the annual per capita consumption gradually climbed from about 6.5 gallons in 1860, until it reached almost twenty-three gallons in 1906. This figure was only slightly reduced until 1915, since when the consumption has dropped to 19.4 gallons.

FIRST NATIONAL ACTION

After a long fight in Congress, led by Richmond P. Hobson, Alabama, hero of the Merrimack, first action on the National prohibition amendment was obtained in committee of the Sixty-fourth Congress, neither the Senate or the House approving the plan at the time. Senator Morris Sheppard, Texas, introduced the amendment in the Senate, and Rep. Edwin Y. Webb, North Carolina, in the House. The same resolution was presented to the Sixty-fifth Congress in December, 1916. On December 13, 1916, the House judiciary committee reported it out. Finally the prohibition amendment was passed by the Senate, August 1, 1917 by a vote of 65 to 20 and in the House, December 17, by a vote of 282 to 128.

War time prohibition was first introduced by Rep. Barkley, Kentucky, in the House April 26, 1918, and was adopted by both Houses as a rider to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill.

The effect of the act will be felt principally in the following states, which have the following percentage of their population in wet territory, according to Anti-Saloon League figures:

California, 73.7; Connecticut, 32; Delaware, 60.8; Florida, 8.9; Illinois, 57.4; Kentucky, 19.2; Louisiana, 48.7; Maryland, 50.8; Massachusetts, 68.1; Missouri, 47; Nevada, 81.6; New Jersey, 94.6; New York, 92.9; Pennsylvania, 81.2; Rhode Island, 96.9; Texas, 12.5; Vermont, 20.5; Wisconsin, 74.9; Wyoming, 65.7.

Taken as a whole more than 60 per cent of the people already are under prohibition.

GIRL IS KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Machine Turns Over When Dog
Is Hit—Four Are Injured

Bertha Caseman, age 16, daughter of Mrs. Caseman, 1136 Hill street, was killed Sunday night in an automobile accident near Bowling Green.

Mrs. Robert Warner, sister to Mrs. Caseman, her husband, a son Robert and a friend, Marie McCarty all of Toledo, were seriously injured. They were taken to a hospital near Bowling Green.

The accident was the result of the machine hitting a dog, according to Mrs. Caseman. It skidded into the ditch, and turned over, she said she learned today.

The party was visiting in Lima over the week end, and were on their way home when the accident happened. The little girl was returning to Toledo with the car for a visit.

The body of the girl will be brought to Lima for burial. Funeral arrangements have not been completed as yet. Mrs. Caseman and her daughter have lived in Lima for a number of years. The little girl was born near Harrod. The father is dead.

MEN MUST JOIN ARMY BEFORE JULY 6 TO SEE FRENCH BATTLEFIELDS

The opportunity to see the battlefields of France at Uncle Sam's expense will soon be a thing of the past. The War Department has informed the local recruiting office that no men can be accepted for service in France after July 5th, 1919. All men who desire to go to France can be accepted up to the 5th day of July and they will be sent at once to Camp Meade for transportation to France.

The recruiting offices announce that men can now be accepted for service on the border in practically all branches including aviation and air service. These two popular branches are being rapidly filled to capacity and the announcement that they will be closed is likely to be received at any time. The Motor Transport Corps has been authorized to accept men for service in Hawaii and the Philippines. The acceptance of men for the Motor Transport Corps Panama has been closed. The Recruiting Office is located in the Sherwood building.

MRS. ROZELLA THRUSH IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Rozella A. Thrush, 40, wife of W. F. Thrush, 718 south Metcalf street, died Sunday night at her home following a complication of diseases. She was born in Wapakoneta. Besides her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Parish of Lima, and two brothers, Alfred and Bernard, survive.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the residence. The Rev. O. P. Hoffman will officiate. Burial will be in Freemont Cemetery, Wapakoneta.

JUDGMENT AWARDED.
The Wagner Loan company was awarded cognovit judgment of $488.33 against C. H. East in common pleas court Monday morning.

GRANT HEARING.
Request for a lunacy hearing filed by Frank Mort against Nellie Mort was granted in probate court for Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock before Judge Becker.

Will be pleased to book you orders for your winter's requirements for either soft or hard coal.

OLD POSTAL RATE BACK IN EFFECT HERE TOMORROW

Letters Cost But Two Cents—
Penny Added to Help War
Debts

Back to the days of the penny postal and the two cent letter!

Tuesday the war tax on all first class mail will be lifted and a man in Lima can send a missive to a lady in Puyallup, Washington, for the old-time price of two cents.

Since November 2, 1917, people have been forced to add the one cent tax to all letters and postal cards, and they were about getting used to it when the government lifted the tax and many will be relieved and benefited.

Contradicting the popular belief that the tax was added as an earning factor to the post office department Postmaster Sullivan explains that the addition postage was turned over to the secretary of the treasury as an aid in the payment of the war expenses.

Figures available from the Lima postoffice show that from the time of the passage of the act, November 2, 1917 until June 30, 1918, the ending of the fiscal year, a tax collection of $20,935.57 was received. The next eleven months, following which ended May 31, 1919 produced from Lima citizens a sum of $30,957.49. Total receipts paid into the Lima office amounted to $50,992.96.

Beginning Tuesday the old rate of two cents per ounce for sealed mail and one cent for post cards is effective. The old familiar red stamp of the two cent variety will be more in evidence with the return to former rates of postage.

"The placing of a small tax upon letters and post cards," according to Postmaster Sullivan, "proved a source of revenue to the federal government which reached everyone."

"The act embraced minors, foreigners and others not otherwise taxable, inasmuch as they were required to pay the tax the same as all others. It was an act that was able to reach all classes," he declared.

DENIED NEW TRIAL

Motion for a new trial in the suit of the St. Clair Manufacturing company against A. L. Burkholder was overruled in common pleas court Monday. Judgment for the defendant of $307.85 was ordered paid.

DAUGHTER GETS ESTATE

The will of the late Ida Kellogg, deceased was admitted for probate Monday morning before Judge Becker. One adopted daughter receives a residence at 317 north Central avenue by the terms of the will.

Sundodging Now Popular Sport

"Sundodging" is the latest pastime in Lima.

The order of the Sundodgers has been established in the business districts.

Downtown crowds are indulging in the latest sport.

Morning shoppers use the shady side of the business streets. When Old Sol gets out in earnest the afternoon bargain seekers shift to the opposite side as the more cooler.

The sun has succeeded in regulating the current of traffic as applies to pedestrians.

BOXING COMMISS GOING TO BATTLE

Promoters of Big Fight Invite Local Men to See Championship Bout

Lima's boxing commission has not been overlooked by the kings of sportdom.

Messrs. Rickard and Flourney, the pair who have made the Willard-Dempsey boxing match in Toledo a possibility, have extended the courtesy of an invitation to the local boxing commission to attend the bout on July fourth.

"Of course, like everyone else," said Joe Hartline, chairman of the commission, "we did not care much about going, but will go to show our appreciation of the courtesy."

In fact, it is planned that the commission will pile out of bed at 4:30 on the morning of the fourth, and motor to Toledo. Their pleasure in the offer was expressed in a letter to the promoters, thanking them for the offer, and acceptance thereof.

The commission is composed of Joe Hartline, A. C. Calajacob, H. G. Sharpley, Jo Gahagan, Frank Chew and Frank Zanone.

21 YANKS KILLED

Americans Attacked by Anti-Kolchak Forces in Siberia

WASHINGTON — Nineteen American soldiers were killed, two died of wounds, eight were severely injured and 17 slightly wounded when anti-Kolchak forces attacked railroad guards of the American expedition at Romanovsk, Siberia, Sunday, the war department announced Monday.

WOULD GIVE HIS LIFE TO SHIELD FORMER KAISER

Hollweg Offers to Stand Trial for War Crimes in Wilhelm's Place

BERLIN—The German reactionary press is mostly silent regarding signing of the peace treaty. Several papers, however, are outspoken in their bitterness toward the terms.

Much speculation was indulged in Monday as to how the allies would receive the appeal of Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg that he be tried instead of the former kaiser for the responsibility of causing the war.

"As imperial chancellor," wrote Hollweg, "I will bear the sole responsibility for the political acts of the kaiser. I hereby place myself at the disposal of the allies and associated powers."

The former chancellor wished to offer himself as a "scapegoat" on May 20, but refrained at the request of the government.

Indications Monday were that the strike crisis had passed. With the government's promise to devote a billion and a half marks in the next three months toward lowering the cost of food, the railroad men returned to work.

HIS OFFER OF LIFE

The communication asks Premier Clemenceau to bring the following document to the knowledge of the allied and associated powers:

"In article 227 of the peace terms the allied and associated powers publicly arraign his majesty, William II, of Hohenzollern, former German emperor, for a supreme offense against international morality and the sanctity of treaties. At the same time they announced their resolve to address a request to the government of the Netherlands for the surrender of the former emperor for purpose of trial.

AT DISPOSAL OF ALLIES

"With reference thereto I take the liberty of addressing a request to the powers to let the projected proceedings against his majesty, the emperor, be taken against me. For this object I hereby place myself at the disposal of the allied and associated powers."

"As former German imperial chancellor, I bear for my period of office sole responsibility, as regulated in the German constitution, for the political acts of the emperor. I believe I may deduce therefrom the claim that the reckoning which the allied and associated powers desire to demand for these acts shall be demanded solely of me."

"Being convinced that the allied and associated powers will not deny international respect to the legal position fixed by public constitutional law, I may express the hope that they will be inclined to yield to my urgent request."

"VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG."

"Hohenknew, June 25."

WITHOUT A HOME

Boy Says He Lost Job Because of Ball Game

Just because he got home late from a ball game, little twelve-year-old Ralph Taylor is without a home, he said this morning.

Ralph said that he was turned out of his home Sunday night when he got there too late to work. He washed dishes for his board and room, he said, for Charles Miller, corner Union and Wayne streets.

"I just got home late and they wouldn't take me back, so I just ain't got any," he said this morning. "I don't know where my papa is, and my mamma lives out on Pine street someplace. Guess I ain't got no home."

Juvenile authorities took charge of the boy and will endeavor to locate a home for him. He is in the seventh grade of school.

PROMISES TO PAY.

Clyde Letol, Toledo, brought to Lima to face a charge of non-support, pleaded guilty to the charge when arraigned in Justice Hamilton's court Monday. Sentence was suspended with his promise to pay for the support of his minor child.

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION

Constructive History of Our Organization

J. C. Penney from a farmer boy to Chairman of Board of Directors of the largest chain of Dry Goods Stores in the world. Mr. Penney was born on a farm two and one-half miles east of Hamilton, Mo., on September 1, 1875. He was the seventh of twelve children. When J. C. Penney, Jr., was two years old the family moved to Hamilton, Mo., in order that the children might have the benefit of a high school education.

Early in life Mr. Penney showed a very earnest desire to make money. When he was nine years old he started raising hogs. He began this business with but one Berkshire hog, and on Saturdays he would go to the country, and go over the corn fields, after the corn had been gathered by the farmer, and would take what he could find home, for feed, for his hogs. He would also carry garbage from the neighbors in the city, and sometimes for many blocks. The hogs grew and multiplied, and finally he decided he best dispose of them and when he returned home, his father asked him what he had done with the money. To which J. C. Penney replied: "I have deposited it in two banks." When his father asked as to his reason for doing this, he promptly replied: "Banks sometimes fail, and he was not going to take chances in losing all of his capital."

His next business adventure was a watermelon patch. This proved to be quite a success, but it demanded considerable care, requiring him to sleep in a tent in the middle of his melon patch, with a dog and a shot gun as companions. In evidence that his neighbors knew that he meant business, it has been said that quite often, colored men that were his customers, when they stopped at night to buy melons, would call over the fence to him: "Hey, Jim, I am coming over to buy some melons; don't shoot."

In the Spring of 1893, at the age of seventeen, he graduated from high school. For two years thereafter he worked on his father's farm, then he decided he would like the mercantile business. Securing a position with J. M. Hale & Bro., in a general store in Hamilton, Mo. For his labor he was paid $25.00 for eleven months' work, an average of $2.27 a month. His duties consisted of sweeping out, dusting, and in fact doing everything no one else cared to do. After two years of faithful services his salary was $16.50. He left Hale Bros. June 7, 1897. His sales for the past year were next to the highest in the store.

On the advice of his physician he went west for his health. Mr. Penney was always a delicate boy, although no one would think so to see him now. Arriving at Denver, Col., he accepted a position at $6.00 per week, but soon left that to enter the butcher business. After one and one-half years making a dismal failure of it, he immediately sought another opening, making application for a position with Mr. Callahan, who owned and managed several stores, known as the Golden Rule Stores. After three months employment in Mr. Callahan's store in Longmont, Col., Mr. Callahan decided that Mr. Penney had some good qualities and sent him to his store at Evanston, Wyo., salary $50.00 a month. He worked hard and diligently, saving his money until he had a bank account of $500.00, which he used to pay for a third interest in a new store opened up at Kemmer, Wyo., a branch store of the Evanston store, with a capital of six thousand dollars ($6,000.00). He borrowed $1500.00 more to take care of his third interest. Mr. Penney opened this store April 2, 1902, doing a business of almost $29,000 the first ten months. We might say that April 2, 1902 marked the beginning of a most successful career.

It was a courageous undertaking for a young man possessing nothing but his hands and his head, with a wife and two babies to support. Dark as the hours were Mr. Penney battled through some trying experiences. He had a fairly broad grasp of economic principles, some definite ideas of organization, store management and expansion. The best of all was the cardinal principles of the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This being the foundation upon which this great organization had been built.

Yours very truly,

J. C. Penney Co.

'SO ARE YOU' IS COUNCIL REPLY

Foster Makes Statement and Asks Who is "Dub" Answering Statement

"Bunch of dubs are we?" said E. R. Foster. "When a mayor of a city signs his name to an ordinance granting permission to pop stands to locate on the square and then tries to get the chief of police to drive them off the square, what do you call him?"

The above statement was made by Councilman Foster in answer to Mayor Simpson's remark that the city council was a "bunch of dubs," relative to the present sewer controversy. "If Metheny would go ahead and do the work that he is getting $3,300 a year to do," said C. P. Morey, councilman from the south side, "and not stir everything all up with a big stick, there would not be any trouble. But instead of quietly going over the bids and awarding the contract, as he should do, he makes a big fuss, and gets everybody in wrong. But he is not going to get the council in wrong on the sewer work. We have not forgotten the water works affair yet."

"Both the mayor and service director claimed that the meeting Tuesday night was called by the council," said W. J. Dempster, "but they are wrong. The council did not call the meeting. Mayor Simpson made the call, and I opened the meeting by asking Mr. Metheny what the board of control expected the council to do."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—With little news of importance to trade upon, bears and bulls took turns in raising and lowering grain futures in the Chicago board Monday. Bear pressure caused prices to drop, but strong buying forced hurried covering with the result that prices rose sharply.

Provisions were higher.

July corn opened at 1.79, up 1 cent and advanced to 1.80. September corn opened down 1/2 at 1.75 1/2 and rose to 1.77 1/2. December corn opened at 1.53 1/2, unchanged and climbed 1/4 cents.

July oats opened unchanged at 68 1/2, and gained 1/2. September oats opened up 1/2 at 68 1/2, and lost 1/2. December oats opened at 69 1/2, down 1/2 and at noon, was unchanged.

Sale of the premises securing a mortgage of $1163.70 in favor of the Lima Home and Savings Association was ordered in common pleas court Monday against H. Clyde Ludwig.

LOCAL PEOPLE SEE SAD ACCIDENT NEAR DAYTON

Several Lima people were on the northbound B. & O. train yesterday that struck an automobile at Tippecanoe City, 12 miles out of Dayton, and killed two persons instantly and caused the death of two more. One woman said upon her arrival in the city yesterday evening that a near panic reigned in the coaches when the lifeless forms of women and children were carried past the car windows.

The train was in charge of a crew from this city. Those killed and injured were from Lewisburg and Arcanum.

EXAM. FOR POSTAL CLERKS AND CARRIERS AUGUST 2

Civil service examinations for the position of clerks and carriers for the postoffice service will be held at the office of the civil board August 2 at the postoffice.

The tests will provide for the employment of carriers and clerks of five grades with salary from $800 to $1,200 yearly. Special attention is to be given discharged men of the military service, by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness. Men ranging from 18 to 45 years of age are wanted.

TWO ARE INJURED

Falling Sand Bucket Strikes Steel Workmen

A dropping sand bucket, being moved by a crane at the Ohio Steel Foundry, dropped and severely injured two workers, at noon today.

Low Dysert, 300 east Elm, probably suffered internal injuries as a result of the accident, examination shows. He was removed to the city hospital by the Williams and Davis ambulance.

John Hardin, 389 south Jackson street, the other man injured, was removed to his residence.

The accident happened when the crane, from which the sand bucket was suspended, gave way. The men were working beneath the crane.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Fred Clinton Fenimore, 27, Ivaton, West Va.; and Lena Conway Griffith, 28, Bluffton; Albert F. Shick, 38, 536 west North street, and Helen J. Kimmel, 24; Robert Harold Williamson, 25, Vinata, Okla.; and Aleta Doner, 24, Hillsburg, Ohio.

CONTRACT FOR COLLETT STREET SEWER NOT LET

Questioned as to when the board of control would award the contract on the half million dollar Collett street sewer work, Mayor Simpson stated Monday that there were several matters of importance to discuss on the big work before the contract could be awarded.

"While we will not reserve the full period of time granted," he said, "we will have to go over vital details of the bids before arriving at a verdict. I do not know just when the contract will be awarded."

HAVE MYSTERY

Police Find Bread Believed to Carry Poison

Poison? Police were confronted by an unsolvable mystery Sunday night. A piece of ordinary bread, spread with a dark substance, and found in a basket at the corner of Park and High streets form the basis of the plot.

Was it poison? That is the question. Police fear that it is an attempt on the part of jealous neighbors to cause trouble.

The piece of bread will be sent to state authorities to be analyzed.

COURT LEGALITY WILL BE TESTED

Man Convicted Holds Police Court Not Duly Constituted Under Law

The constitutionality of the criminal court will be tested in the suit filed in common pleas by William Banks, colored, against the State of Ohio.

The suit is an appeal from the decision of the police court of May 24, 1914, in which Banks received a fine of $100 and costs for being the alleged keeper of a place where intoxicating liquors are sold.

At the time of the action in criminal court Attorney Sutton representing Banks attacked the validity of the court, alleging that it was not provided for under the state statutes. A vote on the institution was one short of the number required by the legislature, according to Sutton.

The petition of Banks alleges that Ernest M. Botkins erred in that he was not legally constituted judge of the criminal court, and that the court was without jurisdiction in the case.

WAITED 8 YEARS, IS DISAPPOINTED

Woman Asks Divorce — Husband Come Back to Another, She Says

Six years of waiting in which Minnie Maria Daniels, waited for the prison gates of the Ohio penitentiary to open and restore to her her husband, Irel Leroy Daniels, proved unfruitful she says in a suit for divorce filed Monday in common pleas court. She came back, to another, she alleges.

In her petition filed she names Adys Shade as co-respondent. She alleges that she spent his time with her women, and avers that on June 1, 1913, he was with the Shade woman.

She sues for separation and alimony and that her maiden name of Minnie Marie Stevenson be restored. They were married December 23, 1908, her petition says.

Daniels was sent up February 11, 1913, for a term of eight years following a conviction for counterfeiting. Her petition alleges.

150 PERSONS DIE IN EARTHQUAKES

Several Villages in Italy Reported Destroyed by Tremors

LONDON.—One hundred and fifty persons were killed at Florence and Bologna, Italy in a succession of earthquakes Sunday night, according to an Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Rome Monday.

At Vecchia, Italy, 100 persons were killed; the dispatch said. It added that several hundred persons were injured in the three cities.

The earth shocks continued thruout the night.

VILLAGES DESTROYED.

ROME.—The newspapers Tempo Monday said that the following villages were almost entirely destroyed in Friday's earthquake.

Olmi, Sappinate, Rivalta, Carneto, Casaglia, Alpiano, Fadulo and Casole.

A church at Marraci collapsed, killing four persons.

SILVER IS GONE

Pair Returns From Honeymoon and Discover Theft

Married a week, and all the silverware missing already.

E. A. Snellen, 519 Faurot avenue, who was married to Marie Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, 222 north Pierce street, returned yesterday from their honeymoon to find that their house had been entered and all the silverware taken.

A report was made to police.

JUDGMENT FOR FEES

Judge Klinger awarded C. L. Fess, $1375.50 judgment for attorney fees against L. C. Kline, in common pleas court, Monday morning.

Make Real Beer at Home

LIKE EVERYBODY DOES IN "DRY" TERRITORY NOW

GET THE HABIT

Some people were fortunate enough to stock their basement with beer before May 27th and enjoy it during the hot days. Some were still more fortunate yet and got BLUE RIBBON MALT EXTRACT and made their own delicious beer at a cost of 3c per bottle and are doing it right along. No other extract will suit them but BLUE RIBBON MALT EXTRACT. To those unfortunate dry people who haven't either one of the two, we extend a hearty invitation to our store. Let us tell you all about it and convince you, like the rest. Satisfied customers are our biggest asset. Remember that this will make a "REAL BEER," with all the kick in it, and not a so called "NEAR BEER." One package of BLUE RIBBON MALT EXTRACT with hops will make between 45 and 50 bottles of beer and it sells for only $1.50. Send draft, Post Office or Express money order.

Quality counts. Cheap imitations of Malt Extract are only dear in the end.

For the convenience of our customers we are also carrying at a very nominal cost a supply of crown caps and cappers for bottling purposes.

Short Shavings

You sign this deed of your own free will, do you, madame?" asked the lawyer.

"What do you mean by that?" demanded the large, florid faced woman, looking threateningly upon the lawyer.

"I mean there has been no compulsion on the part of your husband. Has there?"

"Him?" she ejaculated, turning to look at the little, meek man sitting behind her. "Frederick?" I'd like to see him compulse me."

This story refers to Walker D. Jines, new director general of the railroads.

Appropos of Mr. McAdoo's message to the traveling public printed on the back of the menu card, the waiter observed to a patron:

road job and ain't here no more."

"He's in de movin' picture business, sir."

"I hear Mr. Heluz is now our boss. Dey say it's Heinz de fifty-seven pickle man."

Little Geoffrey had been very disappointed at Christmas time. He had asked Santa Claus for a drum and a whistle, but his father had countermanded the order, as he had no wish to be driven mad with noise. But things changed later.

"My mother is coming to stay with us," said Geoffrey's mother.

"Oh, is she?" said Geoffrey's father.

Then turning to the child, he said: "Look here, sonny, you wanted a drum and a whistle, didn't you? You shall have them tomorrow."

COSS PURCHASES HALF INTEREST IN SAW MILL

B. F. Coss, for 30 years owner and operator of the old Coss mill on the Findlay road, has purchased one-half interest in the Holmes saw mill at Arch avenue and the Erie railroad.

The former mill, which is an old landmark of the city, was recently sold to S. S. Swisher.

The present location of the Holmes mill was visited by fire which destroyed the entire establishment several years ago. Since then it has been rebuilt and is one of the finest in Lima.

Resinol

healed that ugly skin eruption!

Resinol Ointment heals skin irritations that if neglected become serious. One small pimple or slight blotch mars the most beautiful face. A patch of itching eczema or other skin ailment causes great discomfort and much misery.

Resinol heals skin sicknesses because it contains harmless antiseptics for such conditions.

Resinol Ointment was originated by a doctor for the treatment of eczema and other skin affections, so you need not hesitate to use it. All dealers.

NET SPREAD FOR 'BLACK HANDERS'

Hunt For Authors of Threatening Letters Sent to Many Kentuckians

WELLSVILLE, Ohio. — County and federal authorities were making every effort Monday to round up "black handers," who have attempted to terrorize this community during the last three weeks.

Five citizens have received threatening letters from the alleged black hand society demanding sums ranging from $500 to $10,000.

The First Presbyterian Church also received a threatening letter, mailed from Cleveland.

The plant of the Crystal Ice Company was partially wrecked by a heavy charge of dynamite early Sunday.

The county commissioners Monday offered a $1,000 reward for the arrest of the black handers. The chamber of commerce also offered a liberal reward.

AIR PLANS KILLED

Purchase of Plants Knocked Out By Lawmakers

WASHINGTON. — Purchase of the Dayton-Wright and Curtiss Elmwood airplane plants was knocked out by the house and senate conferees on the army bill who Monday reported to the house and senate.

The authority to purchase land at Burlington, N. H., and Ream Field, San Diego, Calif., for aviation purchases was also stricken from the bill by conferees which reduced the aviation appropriation from $54,400,000 as provided for by the senate, to $40,000,000.

The house bill provided for $3,280,000 for purchase of the Dayton Wright plant and $932,617 for the Curtiss Elmwood in Buffalo. The senate reduced the Dayton Wright appropriation to $2,660,000. Conferees in re-writing the whole provision, struck the purchase authorizations out.

ASKS CLEMENCY; SAYS WIFE IS ILL

Man Convicted of Stealing From Hotel Fined and Sent to Workhouse

Alleging that he had a sick wife in Buffalo, N. Y., Robert Proksch, 137 1-2 west Spring street, charged with the theft of ten cans of vegetables from the Hotel Norval, entered a plea for clemency in police court this morning. He stated that he stole the vegetables to send to his wife.

Evidence introduced against the man by Chief of Police Roush showed that he had been making a practice of taking various articles from the hotel. It is alleged that a quantity of silk clothing was found in his possession, after being missed by a travelling salesman for the Marshall Field Company of Chicago.

A letter found on the man, written in German, and addressed to him from his wife, warned him of trouble back home, according to Chief of Police Roush. He alleged that when translated the letter gave evidence to Proksch's wife being mixed up in some illegal proceedings in Buffalo.

Judge Botkin fined the man $25 and sentenced him to 30 days in the Toledo workhouse.

TROOP TRANSPORTATION

WASHINGTON — All records for transporting troops between France and the United States were broken during June, the army estimated Monday, when approximately 350,000 men sailed for the United States. This topped the May performance—also a record for transporting troops either from or to the United States—by 20,000.
